

Directors of Education and Improvement Forum

Agenda

Radisson Blu Edwardian, Manchester
Thursday 30th January 2020

The proposition of improving a group of schools is a complex task – improvement needs to be a focus at group level as well as at individual school level. Peter Drucker said: “The crisis of the world is, above all, an institutional crisis demanding institutional innovation.” The opportunity we have now is to secure sector-led innovation driven by school trusts – institutions whose purpose is the advancement of education for the public benefit. Across our group of schools, we can mobilise a collective effort that delivers value to every child, and high-quality education driven by the best evidence that may have seemed impossible 20 years ago.

12:30 – 13:30	Registration and Lunch	Private room 15/16 Foyer
13:30 – 17:00	Roundtable meeting with inputs from Sir David Carter, former National Schools Commissioner and influential sector leader; and Leora Cruddas, Chief Executive Officer, CST	Private room 15/16
17:00 – 18:30	Break	Private room 15/16 Foyer
18:30 – 19:30	Pre-dinner drinks and networking	The Library
19:30	Dinner	Peter Street Kitchen

During breaks, and before and after the Roundtable, delegates can also visit the event sponsor's 'Renaissance Clinic' to discuss their current or future implementation of Renaissance practice and assessment solutions for schools and trusts.